Fishing Survival Kit

Piece of String: To use in case your line breaks.

Safety Pin: Can be used if you run out of hooks.

Gummy Worms: To use if you run out of bait.

Lifesaver Candy: Just in case you fall into the water.

Cotton Ball: To help pad your seat if you get in rough water.

Milky Way: To help you find your way back to shore, even after dark.

Bandage: Just in case you get hooked, instead of the fish.

Swedish Fish: So you can eat fish, whether you catch some or not.

Tissue: To help you dry the tears when the big one gets away.

Ruler: So you can measure how big your fish really is.

Rubber Band: To help you stretch your fish stories.

Penny: To help bring you good luck.
